The single work of which I am most proud is: A secret.
My pet peeves are: Ugly behavior — N.Y. subways — Mayor Koch.
My place of birth is: Oceanside, Long Island, N.Y.
My greatest accomplishment outside the comics field is: Lecturing like a nun.
My oddest habit is: Nuns don't have odd habits — they have old habits — sometimes funny looking habits — lately no habits at all — and besides it's none of your business.
If they were making a movie of my life, I'd like to see my part played by: Mary Astor, but she died — so I'd settle for Michael Jackson.
The reason I got into comics was: I was too chubby for the Radio City Rockettes.
People who knew me in High School thought I was: Delightful.
My favorite performers are: The Kuklapolitan Players — the Jim Hensen people — the Rockettes and Michael Jackson.
The last good book I read was: THE NATURAL HISTORY OF NONSENSE — Evans.
The last good movie I saw was: BABY BOOM.
The biggest influences on my work include: Past exposure to good children's books, past overexposure to movies — present underexposure to TV.
My greatest unfulfilled ambition in the comics field is: To play spoons on Ralph Macchio's head.
The worst part of my job is: Erasing.
When nobody's looking I like to: Look at people.
The one thing I want the world to know about me is: To know me is to love me
(May I voucher this? Ha ha!)
